The “happy mustached face” of CLEVELAND BROWN (Mike Henry) and his family and friends are back for more in the upcoming third season.

THE CLEVELAND SHOW follows the Brown-Tubbs blended family headed by Cleveland and his sassy high-school-sweetheart-turned-second-wife DONNA (Sanaa Lathan). The rest of the household includes Donna’s boy-crazy teenage daughter, ROBERTA (Reagan Gomez); the 5-year-old with an old soul, RALLO (Henry); and the lovable-but-not-so-bright CLEVELAND JR. (Kevin Michael Richardson).

Rounding out the clan are Cleveland’s friends and neighbors, including loudmouth redneck LESTER (Richardson) and his weighty wife, KENDRA (Aseem Batra); talking bear TIM (Seth MacFarlane) and his talking bear wife, ARIANNA (guest voice Arianna Huffington); vertically challenged HOLT (Jason Sudeikis); and gay best friend TERRY (Sudeikis).

In the upcoming season, the family gets a new neighbor; Donna is reunited with her long-lost mother; Cleveland Jr. joins the church choir and finds religion, a girlfriend and possibly a wife; and Cleveland discovers a conspiracy behind pop music and his most embarrassing secrets are revealed to the world. Additionally, the third season of THE CLEVELAND SHOW will feature an unforgettable salute to one of the greatest holiday stories of all time: “Die Hard.”

Some of the guest voices paying a visit to Stoolbend next season include quintessential TV moms Phylicia Rashad (“The Cosby Show”) and Florence Henderson (“The Brady Bunch”); actress Rosie Perez (“Lipstick Jungle”); cast members from the hit series GLEE; rapper Nicki Minaj; singer/songwriter Bruno Mars; and Grammy Award winner ?uestlove of The Roots. Additionally, musical superstars Kanye West and Fergie of The Black Eyed Peas will return.

THE CLEVELAND SHOW is a 20th Century Fox Television production. Seth MacFarlane, Mike Henry and Rich Appel are co-creators and executive producers of the series.
