

63rd Primetime Emmy® Awards

FOX hosts the television industry's most prestigious night of accolades with the 63RD PRIMETIME EMMY® AWARDS on Sunday, Sept. 18. Live from the Nokia Theatre at L.A. LIVE in downtown Los Angeles, television's biggest stars will make appearances on the highly anticipated broadcast executive-produced by Emmy Award winner Mark Burnett.

American Country Awards

The AMERICAN COUNTRY AWARDS is the only country music awards show that gives fans the opportunity to vote for their favorite artists not only in traditional categories but also in previously unrecognized areas of the business such as touring, encompassing the entire spectrum of country music and bestowing honors that no other awards show has.

Hosted by Trace Adkins, the inaugural AMERICAN COUNTRY AWARDS featured performances by Adkins, Jason Aldean, Luke Bryan, Easton Corbin, Alan Jackson, Toby Keith, Rascal Flatts, Reba, Blake Shelton, Steel Magnolia, Josh Turner, The Band Perry and Uncle Kracker, as well as appearances by Laura Bell Bundy, Rodney Carrington, Jeff Dunham, Travis Pastrana, Jaron and The Long Road to Love, Jewel, Lady Antebellum, Nancy O'Dell, Jennette McCurdy, Bret Michaels, Ty Murray, Jerrod Niemann, Michael Waltrip and Lee Ann Womack.

FOX 25th Anniversary Special (working title)

FOX will celebrate its 25th anniversary with a star-studded look back at the past quarter-century. FOX's biggest stars from both past and present will make live appearances to celebrate the network that began on April 5, 1987.

New Year's Eve Live

FOX cameras will be there to capture the electrifying moments as the biggest names in music rock the Las Vegas strip and the world-famous New Year's Eve Ball makes its descent into New York's Times Square.

